1 In 25 years of publishing Americana catalogs, this is the best political pin I have offered. Outstanding 1864 McClellan-Pendleton jugate ferrotype in superb condition. Brass shell with eagle holding banner "For President & Vice President". The tintype portraits in the arched windows are bright and essentially perfect (the tiny horizontal line at the lower left corner of Pendleton is just a reflection). Original pin on reverse. I purchased this in 2003, and to the best of my knowledge it is the only nice example of this item to appear since I became a dealer in 1976. Two other copies seen in recent years had missing portraits that had been replaced with paper photos/photocopies.

This McClellan jugate is much rarer than the matching Lincoln, but the Lincoln is no doubt worth more. I sold a superb condition Lincoln a couple of years ago for $45,000. This McClellan is possibly the finest known, and is available now for

2 Exceptional 5" scrimshawed whales tooth, second quarter of the 19th century, depicting legendary US Navy Captain James Lawrence. As commander of the ship Chesapeake, Lawrence was killed June 1st 1813 in the famous battle with the British frigate Shannon. As he died on shipboard, Lawrence gave the command "Don't give up the ship", which has served as an inspiration to naval officers for the past two centuries. Bust of Lawrence on pedestal, eagle above holds banner with his name. American flag behind bust, woman and child mourning at right. Reverse has scene of Atlas with the world on his shoulders. Unconditionally guaranteed genuine (I had it examined by one of the top scrimshaw dealers in the country).

3 Highly desirable 12½ Bowie knife inscribed on opposite sides of blade "Chevalier Union knife - Death to Traitors". Four piece checkered rosewood scales (with several thin cracks) over sturdy brass hilt. Obviously sharpened many times, bit of light pitting. The nickel plated tip of the sheath is missing. John Chevalier of New York made Bowies from 1835 to 1871, and is among the most desirable of American makers. Another example of this same knife in similar condition sold at Butterfields in June 2001 for the rather high price of $23,000.

4 One of the greatest rarities in the field of woman suffrage is the Hunger Strike medals issued by the Women's Social and Political Union. Imprisoned suffragettes would refuse food, and when they became sufficiently weak they would be force fed in prison. Mary Hilliard was arrested following a massive window breaking demonstration in London March 4 1912, and was sentenced to two months at hard labor. 3" silver and enamel badge engraved "For Valor - March 4 1912 - Hunger Strike - Mary Hilliard". Green/white/purple ribbon, attached enamel bar in same colors. Original leather case with white silk lining imprinted in gold "Presented to Mary Hilliard by the Womens Social & Political Union in recognition of a gallant action, whereby through endurance to the last extremity of hunger and hardship a great principle of political justice was vindicated". Badge excellent, some fine splits in the silk case lining. I've been looking for one of these for years, and finally got this at a London auction (at a cost of $11,800). Accompanied by additional info on Mary Hilliard and the events mentioned.

5 Excessively rare and I believe previously unrecorded 1840 'sulfide' brooch for Martin Van Buren. The so-called sulfides are not really. Sulfides are molded cameos encased in glass. These political brooches are actually glass plaques with an intaglio (incuse) design on the reverse which has been enameled. This piece shows a flag flying over an iron bound safe with the inscription "OK - SPECIE". The first use of the phrase OK was an abbreviation for Old Kinderhook, Van Buren's nickname. The safe was used on several Van Buren medals, referring to his support for hard money (specie). Couple very tiny flakes at edge of tan background, original pin reverse, overall superb condition. A spectacular rarity!

6 Excellent condition sixth plate daguerreotype of a middle aged black lady, presumably a nanny, with young white girl about 8-10 years old. Lady holds a book in her lap. Very nice, full leather case.

7 These are wonderful! 2½" shovel and 2" pick, gold and rose gold combined, each handle mounted with segments of gold quartz. Small pure gold nuggets on each. T-bar pins reverse.

8 The best Custer photo I've had. Oversized CDV with paper label "Brady's Album Gallery No. 389 - Group of Gen Porters Staff - May 20 1862". Custer reclining on ground at lower right with 8 other identified officers. This is one of the earliest known photos of Custer (Katz K5), showing him as 2nd Lt, 5th US

Cavalry. Strong deep tones, excellent contrast, a great image. The only other example I've seen sold on Ebay in May 2001 for $5,655.

9 A great piece of social history. Large 53 X 86 French poster Uncle Sams Shoe Polish, circa 1895-1900 (Span Am era). Black shoe shine boy kneels before Uncle Sam. Great condition and graphics - a little minor soiling in white area at upper right - near mint, on linen.

10 Very rare large 11" Liverpool creamware punch bowl, Death of General Wolfe at Quebec, French & Indian War. Arman D1, McCauley 100. Interior rim with military and nautical motifs, exterior sides 4 different nautical transfers. Couple minor chips of no importance on foot rim, thin 4" hairline at top to left of flag. This has been in my collection for 20 years and the hairline never bothered me, but I can have it invisibly restored if the buyer doesn't mind waiting.

11 Unique 11" blue decorated stoneware jug, bold deep blue script "Harrison & Morton" - Free Whiskey - 1888". Spectacular condition.

12 Unique pair large 13" Paris porcelain urns with hand painted scenes. First has the famous view of Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry transferring from the Lawrence to the Niagara on Lake Erie. Reverse large 3 masted ship. Second urn depicts Surrender of Burgoyne at Saratoga, reverse with different ship. Huge swan handles in gilt and white. A bit of very minor wear to the gilt as expected. The only fault worth mentioning is that the gilt beak of one swan is gone - a simple repair if desired.

13 One of my favorite things in the catalog. An original pastel advertising artwork showing a turn of the century (Klondike) miner cleaning his gold pan with Old Dutch Cleanser. Artist signed Marna Hoff. 15 X 21 (sight) in a great 24 X 30 custom frame that probably cost $500. Condition absolutely mint.

14 Terrific coin silver tankard circa 1858-1860, engraved "Hon Stephen A Douglas - a tribute of regard - from William Hemphill". Elaborate chased design of eagle on rock, Irish harp on other side. Signed MFW Galt & Bro (Wash DC silversmiths). Pristine. Hemphill is an Irish name, and he was presumably a Douglas friend/supporter in antebellum Washington.

15 Larger 1 X 1½ variety 1840 'sulfide' brooch, log cabin, cider barrel "Harrison & Reform". Beige design on black, original pin, excellent.

16 Grant - Wilson 1872 jugate ferrotype pinback in very choice condition.

17 Rare 1758 silver medal issued during the French & Indian War, portrait Louis XV proclaiming him Emperor of the World, scene of 4 strategic fortresses, including Fort Oswego, the capture of which by Montcalm's forces was a major blow to the British (Americans). Nice VF-XF, a couple scratches. Betts 415.

18 Classic George Washington medal "Success to the United States", 20 mm brass. Sullivan GW 1792-3. XF, the nicest I've had!

19 Tiny 17mm Douglas/Johnson ferrotype, names on obverse rim. Very nice, couple tiny little marks on Johnson side, excellent plus.

20 College football medal, solid gold with blue enamel lettering, black football. "KSU First Season 1891 - Never Defeated". Reverse engraved "Wm J Coleman Center Rush". Kansas State or Kent State? 350.

21 TR - Johnson jugate, 1¼ sepia, made by KC Adv Novelty.

22 Rare 1908 Bryan Tree of Life cello, portrait flanked by dead and healthy trees, quote from Bible. Obscure Milwaukee maker.

23 Nice 1¼ sepia Pawnee Bill cello

24 Guaranteed genuine slave tag "Charleston 1838 Servant #1964". Bold and sharply struck, one of the nicest I've had.

25 This is special. 3" gold miners shovel stickpin attached by chain to small gold pan containing a nugget. Marked Geo Shreve & Co, famous San Francisco jewelers. Pristine.

26 Considered by many collectors to be the best of all matchsafes. Pushing the latch opens the match compartment & also a concealed spring activated lid which opens to a mechanical clockwork scene of a nude couple having sex. She reclines on a large chair, he kneels in front of her on a small stool & thrusts back & forth into her. A small dog jumps below. Floor & furniture a brass color, figures are copper, dog is silver as is the large mirror at right. Closing the lid rewinds the mechanism. See Sanders pg. 89, where this is listed at $7,500 - 9,250, but that seems excessive to me.

- 27 Gold baseball charm with inlaid blue enamel "Amer League Cleveland", engraved "Presented to Tris Speaker by Joe Grosslight for 1916 Highest Batting Average". This was Speaker's only batting title, which he won his first year in Cleveland by hitting .386. 3/4" diameter, perfect condition. Also has alternating red/blue enamel "stitches". 2,250.
- 28 Rare Harding - Coolidge jugate razor, sepia portraits under celluloid handle. "America First - Our Choice" Capitol and White House on reverse. Photo didn't come out very good - item is bright and exc. 1,950.
- 29 Exceedingly rare textile circa 1797, Collins 14, "Washington Addressing the People of the United States on his Resignation of the Presidency". Scene at center of him delivering his speech, entire text surrounding all four sides. 22X25 red/white. Somewhat faded, scattered light foxing, several small splits and frays. The largest split shows on photo as a vertical white line on right side of scene. Catalog photo did not come out well, item looks much nicer, overall G - VG. I don't think I've ever seen another. 1,750.
- 30 (very hard to photograph) Large 2 1/4 gold watch by Waltham. Engraved scene two laborers shaking hands, banner reads "Workingmen of All Countries Unite - You Have Nothing to Lose but Your Chains - You Have a World to Gain - Marx". Interior engraved "Presented by Appeal to Reason to E W Sackman for Meritorious Work for Socialism 1914". Appeal to Reason was a Socialist magazine. Excellent condition, runs perfectly. 2,000.
